Toboggan Slide Is Addition To Winter Sports

Plans Continue for Recreation Center at Lake Antioch

Greeted with shudders in many quarters, the snow and cold weather only seem to stimulate the program of winter fun being planned for Lake Antioch. Latest addition to the winter sport program at what is planned to be a cold weather recreation center will be a toboggan slide.

The Antioch Lumber company has donated lumber to be used in making the slide, it was learned last evening. Sunday morning, Ben R. Burke will supervise erection of the slide, with local carpenters on hand to assist in the work.

All labor and materials for this purpose are being donated, it is stated by Athletics director Reuben H. Childers of Antioch high school, who is an enthusiast over Antioch's possibilities as a winter sport center.

Ski Slide at West
A ski slide is to be constructed on the west hill at the lake.

All of the facilities will be open to the public free of charge, it is announced.

Widespread interest has been roused by the possibility that Antioch may sponsor a winter carnival at the lake, and a number of Antioch civic leaders are giving serious thought to the ways in which such an entertainment might be staged.

Announce Finnish Relief Donations Already Total $109

Residents of Antioch and nearby territory who wish to contribute to Finnish relief may make direct donations for that purpose, Mayor George B. Bartlett of Antioch, local chairman, announced today. The Antioch News is cooperating with the relief drive by printing in this week's issue a coupon which may be used by those sending in donations.

The donations may be addressed to Mayor Bartlett of Antioch, or may be made at the First National Bank or the State Bank of Antioch, which have been authorized by Bartlett to receive them.

Donations to date total $109. They include the following:

C. K. Anderson	$100
George B. Bartlett	5
Victor Gustafson	1
Antioch News	2
George W. Bartlett	1
Total	$109

Further donations will be announced as they are made. Feb. 1 has been set as the date by which it is hoped all donations will have been received.

There has also been some discussion of the possibility of staging a benefit entertainment in Antioch for the Finnish relief fund.

Local Farm Youths Win Overtime Game

Wednesday evening, in sub-zero weather, the two Future Farmer basketball teams from Antioch traveled to Palatine, Ill., and defeated the F. F. A. teams of that school.

The seconds won by a score of 26 to 11, not allowing any field goals to the opponents during the second half. Lawrence Keisler was the high point man.

The first team met much opposition and was trailing by four points at the half. During the second half the Antioch lads tied the score. In an overtime period the local farm boys won—score 17 to 15. Robert Bolton led in the scoring.

C. L. Kuitil accompanied the teams to Palatine.

It's Really Cold Here; Some Report 22° Below

Unofficial reports of sub-zero temperatures here, ranging from 17 to 22 degrees below, varying according to the location and the thermometer, helped Antioch folks to realize that it really was cold this morning. Low temperatures were also reported from surrounding regions. No relief from the cold wave is in sight for a few days, according to weather forecasts.

Lake County Third In Motor Fuel Refund

Lake county was third highest of the downstate counties in the amount of motor fuel tax refund for the month of December, according to a statement just released by the Division of Department reports from Springfield. This county received $20,280.

The gross refund for all counties was $1,101,175, from which was deducted $210,625 as reserve for the $20,000,000 emergency relief bond and $80,364 as the reserve for $30,000,000 issue. Peoria led the downstate counties with an allotment of $21,932, and Kane was second with $20,535.

Sample Census Questions Are Made Known

John L. Horan, census enumerator for Antioch township, attended a dinner held by the Forward Division of the Waukegan-North Chicago Chamber of Commerce last Wednesday in the Karcher hotel.

Manufacturing representatives and retail owners of Lake county concerns were among those present to hear a talk on "Your Census," given by George W. Schreck, supervisor for the Chicago area.

Schreck, who has had 20 years of experience in the bureau of census under the Department of Commerce, outlined to the gathering the values of the census to business men. The great number of requests coming to the bureau from business concerns wishing information concerning distribution of population, manufacturing, and general business are a testimony, he said, to the use manufacturing and business men make of census statistics.

Main Points

For the guidance of local business men who may wish to save time by preparing themselves in advance to answer the census questions, Mr. Horan has prepared a resume of the principal inquiries for the "retail schedule, short form."

They include:

1. Description of establishment, name of owner, date of original establishment of business in this city, date of acquisition or establishment under present ownership, total number of retail establishments owned by this proprietor or organization in the United States.

2. Kind of business; the principal kinds of merchandise sold, in the order of their sales importance in 1939.
3. Type of operation and group affiliation (independent, co-operative, mail-order, road-side stand, military post exchange, house-to-house, leased department and so on).

4. Net sales, total receipts, sales tax, credit sales.
5. Proprietors, firm members and members of family (this does not apply to corporations).

6. Employment and pay roll.
7. Stocks on hand and accounts receivable.

8. Analysis of sales by commodities.

The confidential census report blanks vary slightly according to the different businesses. The blanks bear the heading:

"Your report is required by Act of Congress. This act makes it unlawful for the bureau to disclose any facts, including names or identity, from your census reports. Only sworn census employees will see your statements. Data collected will be used solely for preparing statistical information concerning the Nation's population, resources and business activities. Your Census Reports Cannot Be Used for Purposes of Taxation, Regulation or Investigation."

Send Finnish Aid Contributions to

George B. Bartlett, Antioch Chairman

Damnable little Finland needs YOUR help. Sympathy is not enough.

The Finnish people, victims of an unwarranted attack, already have won your admiration.

Translate that feeling into action now, TODAY, by sending your gift to Finnish Relief to Mayor George B. Bartlett, or to the State or First National Banks of Antioch. All contributions will be acknowledged and will be turned over to the FINNISH RELIEF FUND COMMITTEE, headed by Former President Herbert Hoover.

Armour Tech President To Address Lions

Heald Will Be Speaker at Meeting of Antioch Club Monday

Henry T. Heald, president of Armour Institute of Technology, Chicago, will speak on "Youth and Industry" at a meeting of the Antioch Lions club, to be held at the Ball hotel on January 22, at 7:00 p. m.

In his address, the youthful president of one of the greatest engineering schools in the country will touch upon the significant role of technology in American life, the present youth problem, and what engineering colleges are doing to solve that problem. He will present a brief outline of the founding of the forty-eight year old institution and some of the achievements of its alumni, their place in industry and the effect of their profession on society, religion, government, schools communities and business.

To Discuss Schools

Plans for the future consolidation of Lewis Institute and Armour Institute of Technology which were announced last October, will also be discussed. The actual integration of the schools, to be known as Illinois Institute of Technology, will become effective in September, 1940. The merger will give to Chicago one of the largest and best equipped technological institutions in the United States, bringing together two institutions with combined experience of almost 100 years in engineering education and service to industry. The new institute will have a total enrollment of 7,000 day and evening students, and a faculty of between 350 and 400 members.

The proposed budget for the new institution provides for the expenditure of one and one-quarter million dollars a year for education and research, according to school officials. Endowment funds of the present institutes, which total more than 2 million dollars, will be combined.

Is Youthful Educator

Head of one of the greatest technological institutions in the country, President Heald is one of the youngest college presidents in the United States, being only 35 years of age. He is a graduate of the State College of Washington and the University of Illinois, and has been with Armour Institute since 1927.

He has been president since 1938. He had considerable engineering experience before coming to Armour, having been assistant engineer in the U. S. Bureau of Reclamation, Pendleton, Oregon, 1923-24; designer in the bridge department of the Illinois Central R. R., Chicago, 1926-27; structural engineer, Bureau of Design, Board of Local Improvements, Chicago, 1926-27; engineer, Louisville Bridge and Iron Co., 1929; and engineer, Walter Bates Steel Corporation, 1930.

He is a registered structural engineer, and is a member of the Society for the Promotion of Engineering Education, American Association for the Advancement of Science, American Society of Municipal Engineers, and of the National Association of Deans and Advisers to men.

James Simpson, Jr., Is Committeeman Candidate

James Simpson, Jr., of Wadsworth, former congressman and a leader in local Republican circles, has announced his candidacy for the office of Republican State Central committeeman from the Tenth congressional district.

THE HEAT IS ON

Says Schools Should Make Good Citizens

Character Building Is Important, Austin Tells Civic Club

"One of the primary functions of a high school is to make good citizens," J. O. Austin, principal of Antioch Township high school, told 55 members of the Antioch Civic club assembled for a dinner meeting Monday evening. The occasion marked Austin's first appearance as a speaker in Antioch since taking on his new duties as principal at the high school here last fall.

He was introduced by Otto S. Klass, vice-president, presiding in place of President A. P. Bratrude, who is on a trip to Florida.

Speaking on "What a High School Should Be," Austin declared that in addition to the importance of maintaining a fully accredited institution, the value of the school's contributions to the student's character should also be scrutinized.

Spirit, Work Count
"The spirit that a student brings to his classes and the work that he puts into his studies are as important as the subjects he takes up," he affirmed.

In addition to the talk, the program included accordion selections by Hans von Holwege and solos by Robert Hawkins, Robert Chinn and Charles Cernak.

The meeting was held in the dining hall of St. Peter's church, where the dinner was served by ladies of the parish.

"Good Citizenship Lasts"
"Academic work may be lost in the years to come, but good citizenship and industry will endure for a certainty," Austin emphasized in his talk.

"High school training should also be of such a nature that it will enable pupils to choose their futures and govern their conduct wisely, rather than to fill them with unassimilated facts," he also stated.

Informal reminiscences of the oil boom in southern Illinois were given by the speaker, in addition to his observations on high school work.

Social Security Man Will Be Here Jan. 24

For the convenience of employers and employees of this vicinity who desire assistance and information relative to the Old-Age and Survivors Insurance system of the Social Security act, as amended, Albert S. Lewis, manager of the Waukegan field office of the Social Security board will be at the Antioch post office on Wednesday, January 24, from 10 a. m. to 4 p. m. The manager stated this personal service will be given regularly to the people in this area of his office.

Inquiries may also be made by letter or telephone at the field office of the board located in the Post Office building in Waukegan.

"Many employers and wage earners wish information concerning old-age and survivors insurance and other phases of the Federal Social Security program," Mr. Lewis said. "We are glad to be able to make direct contact possible for them."

Death Ends Illness for Mrs. Folbrich

Funeral Services Are Held at Home of Antioch Woman

Funeral services for Mrs. Dora Folbrich of 291 Ida avenue were held at the home Monday afternoon at 1 o'clock, with the Rev. J. E. Charles of St. Ignace's Episcopal church officiating. Burial was in Hillside cemetery.

Mrs. Folbrich died late Thursday evening at her home, aged 63. She had been in poor health for some time, but although her death was not unexpected, it nevertheless came as a shock to her many friends in the community.

She was born Dec. 28, 1876, at Hanover, Germany. For the past 22 years she had lived in Antioch, at the same residence. Her husband, Lewis, preceded her in death. Surviving are a son, Richard, and a daughter, Bernice.

A sister, Mrs. Chase McGuire, lives in Waukegan, and another sister, Mrs. Elizabeth Lubkeman, in North Steadman, Wis. Three brothers, August, Otto and Albert Richert, are all residents of Reedsburg, Wis.

MRS. FRED SMITH DIES, AGED 57

Husband and Daughter, Mrs. John Gaa, Are Among Survivors

Funeral services for Mrs. Edna Smith will be held Saturday afternoon at 2 o'clock in Strang's funeral home. Mrs. Smith, who was 57 years of age last August 24, passed away Wednesday evening at the home of her son-in-law and daughter, Mr. and Mrs. John Gaa, 752 North Main street, with whom she and her husband resided.

Survivors, besides Mr. and Mrs. Gaa, include her husband, Fred Smith, and two grandchildren, Virginia and Ronald Gaa. She is also survived by three sisters and a brother, living in Oak Park and Chicago. She was born in Chicago.

For the past 10 years, Mr. and Mrs. Smith were residents of Antioch.

Future Farmers Destroy 10,000 Pests

In a contest conducted between the Future Farmer chapters of Antioch and Gurnee, approximately 10,000 farm pests were exterminated by the members of the two schools.

Eight thousand and thirty sparrows, 1002 mice, 565 rats, 154 starlings and 47 crows were destroyed between Nov. 15 and Jan. 4.

Allen DeBates of Antioch was the high point winner with 902 pests destroyed.

On a point basis the Warren Chapter won over Antioch and the winners will be honored at a party to be given by the Antioch Chapter at a later date.

County Legion Council Will Meet at Lake Bluff

Notification has been received by the Antioch Post that Lake County Council of the American Legion will hold a meeting at Lake Bluff on Friday, January 19.

Farmers Will Consider Lease on Dairy Here

Possibility of Building Their Own Plant Is Also Mentioned

William Schultz, active committee member since farmers took charge of the Antioch dairy plant last August, announces that the farmers will meet with attorneys for C. K. Anderson, and the receiver appointed in the foreclosure action now in process, to discuss terms of a possible lease to the dairymen.

Anderson is re-possessing the plant through the foreclosure.

In previous conferences with Anderson, Schultz said the milkmen were willing to pay only half of the lease price set by Anderson.

Can Get Equipment

Local dairymen are in a position to become owners of a large part of plant equipment not covered by the Anderson mortgage, and are said to be contemplating the building of their own plant. They estimate that, including all necessary equipment, this would cost them only approximately what is asked for the present plant.

In the meantime, local farmers have been somewhat inconvenienced because of the manner in which they have had to market their milk. They at first disposed of it through the Richmond plant. Last week, the Antioch patrons were transferred to the plant at Burlington, Wis.

Visits Accident Victim, Lands In Hospital, Too

Last Thursday Mrs. Evan Kaye of Antioch called on a friend who was in the hospital in Kenosha as the result of an automobile accident. The roads were icy when Mrs. Kaye and her husband started back for Antioch, another car skidded into them—and now friends are calling on Mrs. Kaye at St. Catherine's in Kenosha, where her injured knee is reported to be improving.

Driving an automobile belonging to Mrs. Kaye's father, William Gray of Antioch, Mr. and Mrs. Kaye were only a short distance out of Kenosha heading west on Highway 50 when another automobile, attempting to pass a WPA truck as both were driving east, went out of control on the icy pavement and struck the car in which the Kayes were riding. The fenders of the car were crumpled, and Mrs. Kaye sustained an injury to her knee.

An ambulance summoned by Mr. Kaye took her to St. Catherine's hospital, while he followed in the car, which could still be driven, although damaged.

Mrs. Alvin Moran of Trevor, who was injured in an accident near Liberty Corners early last week, and whom Mrs. Kaye had visited Thursday, is said to be recovering from injuries which included several broken ribs. While driving with her husband, she started to fall as an insecurely closed door in their car opened. An attempt made by her husband, who was driving, to catch her failed. The car went out of control and she is believed to have been either struck or run over by the vehicle as she fell to the ground.

Shrine Circus Highly Successful Affair, Says Fred Swanson

"Lake county's response this year to the Shrine Winter circus was a most gratifying one," reports Fred B. Swanson of Antioch, president of the Lake County Shrine club.

Swanson, who was in charge of Lake county arrangements for Shrine circus attendance, estimates that about 300 persons from this region attended the big winter show in Chicago, which held its closing performance Sunday evening. This total, he said, does not include 52 members of the Antioch Junior Legion Drum and Bugle corps, who took part in a parade that preceded a performance on Jan. 3.

One party of 160 made the trip by special train from Waukegan, enjoying a dinner served en route on the train, Swanson said.

He commented on the total attendance of 172,000 persons at the circus as being highly gratifying to the Shrine, as well as helpful in its raising of funds for its work among crippled children, especially through its hospitals, such as that at Oak Park and Relden avenue, Chicago.

Plans for the Lake County Shrine club's coming activities will be made at a meeting of the officers this weekend, Swanson stated.

Spending Has Flopped

Apparently the only protection the nation has against further sizable increases in the staggering national debt lies in the reluctance of Congress to again raise the legal debt limit. That limit is now set at $45,000,000,000. And the current debt comes uncomfortably close to that mark.

The recent proposed plan whereby the government's lending powers would be increased almost $4,000,000,000 which would appear neither in the budget nor the debt, is designed to eliminate the protection of the debt limit. No plan ever devised could do more to promote eventual national bankruptcy. It is proposed that this money be spent for all manner of purposes—roads and bridges, rural electrification, waterworks, etc. If it is sound to use trick bookkeeping methods to spend $4,000,000,000 in these ways, why not spend ten, twenty, fifty, a hundred billion? It wouldn't appear in the debt.

Isn't it about time, instead of proposing schemes to get around the debt limit law, that our legislators considered arming, not increasing expenses—and balancing, not further distorting, an inflated budget? Spending for spending's sake has been a flop—and one of the most costly flops in world history. Let's try economy—it certainly couldn't produce any worse results.

Jackson Day, Indeed!

The Democratic Party—we call it that in the full realization of the wrongs the better element of that organization has suffered—again celebrate Jackson Day. It is hard to imagine a more shocking perversion of one of America's more sacred memories.

Think of what is being done!

A One Hundred Dollar A Plate dinner in the Nation's Capital to raise political campaign funds when everybody knows that one of Andrew Jackson's most vigorous determinations was the full and satisfactory payment of debt!

Here, then, is the Democratic Party—no, let us call it the New Deal Party for no good Democrat deserves these thoughts—filching funds from the very pockets of the people with which to attempt to foist for a third time on this nation an administration which has set an all-time record for debt!

Can't you just hear the biting-tongued Jackson denouncing such a proposal?

Filching funds from the very pockets of the people? Yes, indeed, for are not these men who sit themselves down to this sumptuous feast servants of the people, paid by the grace of taxation? They are that, and Andrew Jackson, the people's man, would have had none of it!

The writings of the frugal Jackson are replete with quotations concerning debt. Indeed, he once said that "if I live  I will, I hope, pay the last dollar!" And he did!

How much more appropriate it would be if, instead of feasting amidst the tossing about of one hundred dollar bills, the administration betook themselves of a meal more typical of the tight-belted Jackson and instead of wallowing in money literally yanked from the pockets of the taxpayers, made at least a token payment on the national debt!

Jackson, the Democrat, would have roared his approval!

Banks and Newspapers

Newspapers and banks have at least one thing in common, in the opinion of the Quachita Citizen of West Monroe, Louisiana. Both of them get plenty of criticism.

"The most difficult task that we can think of at the moment is to run a bank or a newspaper to please everyone," says the Citizen. "If the banker is conservative he is charged with not being helpful to the community. If he lends the depositors' money too freely he is criticized when the borrower can't repay and the bank closes. The Newspaper man who prints all the news regardless of who makes it, is criticized and called sensational. If he leaves it out he is charged with being afraid to print the news. The best plan for the banker or the newspaper man to follow is to run his business the way he thinks it should be run and let the critics criticize."

It would be an interesting experiment if "self-starting" critics were given charge of the nation's banks and newspapers for a period. It's a safe bet that they'd rapidly learn a sad lesson—and an equally safe bet that the public which depends on banks to safeguard its money and newspapers to give it the news of the world, would take a terrific beating. Amateur banking and amateur journalism would be a far cry from the real professional articles.

Banking has given the American people and American business unparalleled service—it furnished the financial lifeblood that built this nation in world record time. The American newspaper gives the people better, more complete and more accurate coverage of what is happening a mile away or ten thousand miles away than the press of any other country. The bankers and the editors will go on doing these vital jobs while "the critics criticize."

One way to get acute mental indigestion is to swallow all the propaganda stories which come from the various "information bureaus" of the European capitals.

An estimate of the probable cost of a third term for Mr. Roosevelt would not only be startling, but appalling.

Adolf Hitler got two votes in a recent primary in Philadelphia. He is about as popular in the City of Brotherly Love as a Republican is in South Carolina.

A leading new Dealer recently remarked that a majority of the people are for the Roosevelt program whatever it is. And the Washington Post cruelly chimes in, "Whatever is it?"

The easiest thing in politics is to make folks believe that pension for themselves would be good for the country.

A survey of college graduates shows that few of them believe in hell. But wait until they begin paying taxes.

President Roosevelt's announcement of the "limited" emergency recently as a defense measure, was his 40th "emergency" since March 4, 1933.

LAKE VILLA

The Lake Villa church will sponsor a home movie on Jan. 26 at the new school gymnasium. The pictures will consist of shots taken here and there about the village, with many pictures of children, merchants and others in action. There will be a number of action scenes taken at the disastrous Keisler barn fire a few weeks ago. Other pictures showing Joe Nader helping the wife do the washing, and Steve the barber at work will be featured of the program. On the same evening a reel of beautiful colored pictures and several comedies will be shown, and arrangements are being made to bring Highlights in Sport for 1939 and "Highlights in the News for 1939." These last two pictures are talking pictures. As an additional attraction there will be vaudeville on the stage between scenes. If you want to see what you look like in movies, come along. The program starts at 8 P. M. and proceeds to the community church.

The local Epworth League will travel to Fox Lake next Sunday evening to attend a Fellowship gathering at the Community church there. Dr. J. H. Whitechurch, Professor of Ethics and Philosophy at Garrett Biblical Institute, will speak. Those of League age who desire to go should meet at the Lake Villa church not later than 7:30 p. m. Transportation will be provided.

Cedar Lake Camp R. N. A. will hold its installation on Tuesday evening, Jan. 30. Members will please take notice and each member may invite a friend.

Mr. and Mrs. J. M. Brown, nee Gertrude Lynn, who were married here a few weeks ago and have since been visiting relatives in California, came Sunday for a short visit here before going on to New York to sail for their new home in South America, where Mr. Brown is employed as mining engineer. They will be gone for three years.

B. J. Hooper has been elected president of the recently organized Lions club here and they held a meeting Wednesday evening this week.

The Ladies' Aid society east for the amateur play, "Back to School" is at work and has set the evening of Tuesday, Feb. 6, as the date of its presentation at the new gymnasium. Parts are all taken by people you know, but may not recognize on the stage. It is full of laughs and will make you forget your troubles if you have any, so plan to be there at 8 o'clock.

Mrs. Frank Pittman and brother, Ben Emmons of Chetek, Wis., have been guests of the Leo and Lloyd Barnstable families for the past two weeks.

Howard Sheehan arrived from Pendleton, Oregon, last Tuesday to attend the funeral of his father, William Sheehan, and expects to return home in a few days.

John Fuhrer has been quite ill and is in the general hospital for treatment.

Mrs. J. O. Hucker is improving and on Saturday and Sunday her daughter, Mrs. Alice Mitchell of Chicago, and her sister visited her.

Mr. and Mrs. Arthur Haley spent last Friday in Chicago and on Monday Mr. and Mrs. Haley started for Florida to be gone two weeks.

Mr. and Mrs. David Thees of Fourth Lake celebrated their golden wedding anniversary at their home two weeks ago and friends from Chicago and the Lake Villa vicinity helped them celebrate.

Mrs. Anna Kelly of Antioch spent Sunday with the Charles Kelly family and attended church services here.

Mr. and Mrs. Herman Wolff have moved into the Ballenger house on Grand avenue and Mr. and Mrs. Zens Zenor have moved into the cottage on Cedar avenue vacated by the Wolff family.

Mrs. Lester Hamlin entertained a group of eight young ladies from Waukegan last Thursday night in honor of her sister, Mrs. Kathryn Nauta's birthday.

Obituary

William Henry Sheehan, 83, of Lake Villa, who passed away after a short illness of pneumonia on Jan. 6, 1940, at St. Therese hospital, Waukegan, was born on Nov. 23, 1856 in a log house on the farm he later owned for many years. He was the eldest child of Daniel and Bridget Sheehan, early pioneers, who came here from Ireland, when this vicinity was little more than a wilderness. On this farm he grew to manhood and on the 6th day of September, 1882, he was united in marriage to Mary Ann Byrne of Waukegan, and to this union were born eight children, five of whom survive: Mary, Frankie and Eugene having passed away in childhood.

When Mr. Sheehan sold the old home farm thirty-four years ago he moved a short distance east of Lake Villa which was his home at the time of his death. On April 10, 1910, Mrs. Sheehan passed away.

On Oct. 23, 1912, he was united in marriage to Martha O'Boyle of Ingleside, Illinois, who with his five children: Daniel, Mrs. Henry Atwell of Lake Villa, William and Howard of Pendleton, Oregon, and Joseph of Klamath Falls, Oregon, survive him. He also leaves 11 grandchildren and 11 great grandchildren, his brother, Eugene, of Lake Villa, and his sister, Mrs. Maggie Hutchinson of Waukegan, and many nieces and nephews, besides many friends, to mourn his passing.

In his young manhood Mr. Sheehan worked with his father and brother-in-law, Goodwill Gail, at the well business, many tile wells all over the country still remain as a reminder of days when deep driven wells were not known of and when the material for those wells had to be hauled many miles with teams instead of to-day with fast moving trucks.

Mr. Sheehan was of a quiet home-loving disposition, his chief concern being always of his family. His kindness and love will always be a treasured memory. His funeral was held at St. Peter's Catholic church in Antioch on Tuesday morning, Jan. 9, and he was laid to rest in St. Patrick's cemetery near Wadsworth. Dear Father—Ne'er will we forget Thy brow, thine eye, thy pleasant smile.

Though in the sea of death hath set Thy star of life, my guide awhile, Oh, never shall thy form depart From the bright pictures in our hearts.

And while to one engulfing grave By Time's swift tide we're driven, How sweet the thought that every wave But bears us nearer Heaven.

There we shall meet, when life is o'er in that blest Home, to part no more.

MILLBURN

Funeral services for Floyd S. Beaumont, brother of Mrs. Robert Bonner of Kansasville, Wis., were held at the Beaumont home at Kansasville Thursday afternoon, Jan. 11. Those from Millburn attending the services were Mr. and Mrs. W. M. Bonner and son, Roy, Mr. and Mrs. L. S. Bonner, Mr. and Mrs. Gordon Bonner and son, Howard, Mr. and Mrs. J. S. Denman and Mr. and Mrs. Ralph Miller.

Word has been received of the death of Mrs. Eliza Ross at her home in Los Angeles after a short illness. Mrs. Ross was born at Millburn and was a sister of the late Margaret and Belle Watson.

Mrs. Howell Kennimer, who has been a surgical patient at St. Therese hospital, returned home Sunday.

Mr. and Mrs. Allan Block of Minneapolis, Minn., were overnight guests at the J. S. Denman home Thursday.

Miss Marian Edwards of Oak Park spent the week-end with her parents, Mr. and Mrs. F. G. Edwards.

Mr. and Mrs. Earl Kane, Jr., and daughter, Donna, of Diamond Lake spent Sunday at the J. S. Denman home.

There was a good attendance at the meeting of the Parent-Teacher association Wednesday evening. All enjoyed the pictures shown by Ralph Clabough of Antioch, also the musical numbers of Thel Rush.

There will be a Pilgrim Fellowship meeting of young people of Congregational churches of the Lake Shore area, held at Millburn church Sunday evening. A social hour and refreshments will follow the meeting.

The Complex club will hold its regular meeting and party in the church basement Friday evening.

A NEW STANDARD OF GREATNESS

LESSON TEXT—Matthew 20:17-28.
GOLDEN TEXT—While we were yet sinners, Christ died for us.—Romans 5:8.

The nations of the earth and their leaders are engaged in a struggle to determine which land and which leader is to be the greatest. They may attempt to conceal their real motive under a cloak of high-minded and well-sounding objectives, but essentially the reason for their struggle is the desire to be great. To them greatness means size, strength, wealth, and position. It means that also to the average man on the street. What a pity it is that such is the case and that such a vicious and erroneous philosophy of life has been permitted to make its way even into the Church.

The world's ideas of greatness are entirely opposite to God's standards. God's people ought to learn what His ideals of life are and to live in accordance with them even in an unbelieving world. Both they and the world would be astonished at the result.

I. Dying for Others (vv. 17-19).
With surprising clarity and detail the Lord Jesus once more revealed to His disciples that He was on His way to Jerusalem to die and to arise again. It is well worthwhile to note that apart from divine foreknowledge and inspiration it would have been utterly impossible for Him to give these facts in such exact detail.

The point we wish to stress is that the Son of God was steadfastly approaching the death of Calvary. He had no desire to live for self, to gratify His own wishes, to prolong His life, or to improve His position in the world. He had come to do but one thing, the will of God, even to the shameful death of the cross, there to bear your sins and mine. Let us give ourselves in loyal devotion to our dying and risen Lord.

II. Living for Self (vv. 20-24).
Were it not written for us to read, we could hardly believe that the two disciples, James and John, who were so very near to our Lord, and their mother, who was a woman of earnest faith and sacrificial service to God, would be guilty of such an expression of selfishness, especially in that sacred hour when He had spoken of His approaching death. Disregarding what Jesus had said about His sufferings, they apparently could think only of His coming glory, and in thinking of that they could only covet for themselves the chief places. What a strange mixture of faith in Christ and an overwhelming desire for self-glory!

Perchance some of us have served Christ with a selfish desire for personal glory and position putting it self forward to influence our thinking and acting. Perhaps we do not see it in ourselves, but are like the other disciples who, seeing this hateful thing in John and James, were repelled by it, even as we despise it in others. It may be that the disciples were only angry because they had not thought to make the request for themselves.

III. Finding True Greatness (vv. 25-28).

"Rulers," "greatness," "exercise authority"—how modern these words from verse 25 sound! They epitomize the ambitions of the great majority of mankind today. Few indeed are those in the world who see the way to true greatness as that of the lowly Jesus. In every instance where they do rightly apprehend and live out this truth, one is satisfied that somewhere in their experience they have come to know His principles of life even though they do not know Him. Only in Him is such an attitude toward life to be found.

To be great one is to serve in the spirit of humility and self-sacrifice. This is the command of Christ. Even in the Church there are not too many who have heeded that word. If there were more of this spirit we would have less church quarrels, for essentially they root back to the desire for greatness. We may not admit that fact, but it is none the less true.

One wonders how great some of the pillars of the Church would look measured against the standard of verses 20 to 28. One wonders too how many of the humble workers of the Church realize their true greatness. Such greatness of heart is great simply because it does not so regard itself.

For Thy Name's Sake
But do thou for me, O God the Lord, for thy name's sake; because thy mercy is good, deliver thou me. For I am poor and needy, and my heart is wounded within me.—Psalm 109, 21-22.

Jesus Asks Evidence
That they all may be one: as thou, Father, art in me, and I in thee, but they also may be one in us: that the world may believe that thou hast sent me.—John 17, 21.

Hoover Instructed in Auctioneering Art

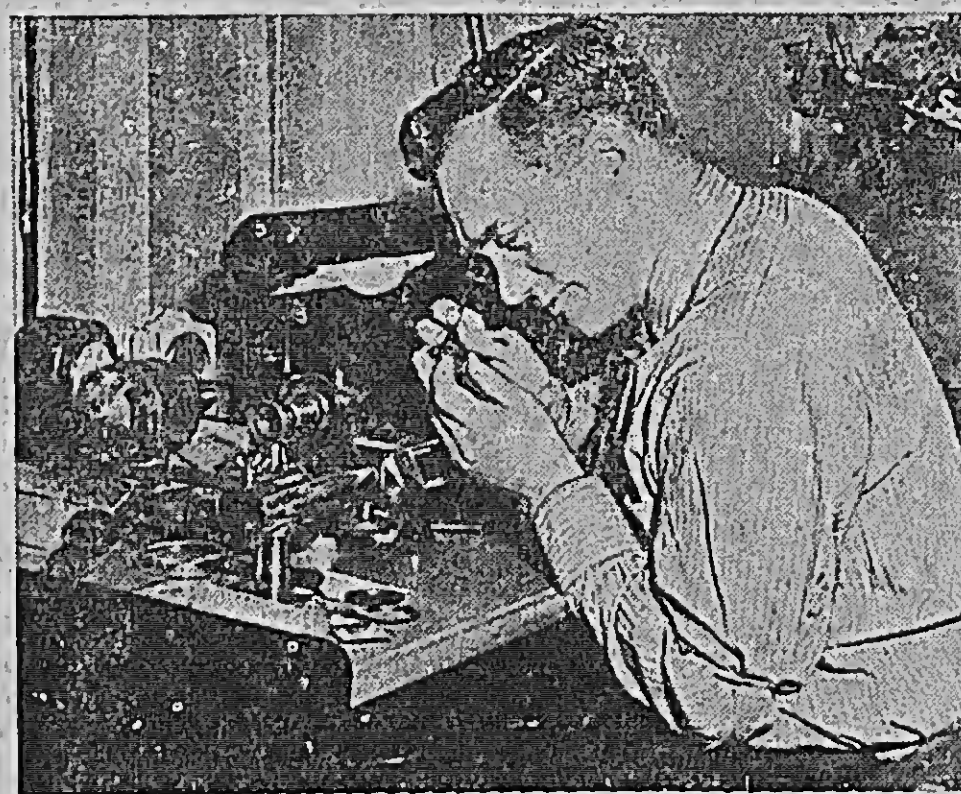

Actress Gertrude Lawrence shows former President Herbert Hoover the technique she used when she auctioned off a group of 28 paintings in New York to aid the Finnish relief fund. The art was executed by Ben Silbert, an American, who painted them in Finland, working in temperatures which ranged to 20 below. Silbert donated the collection to the fund.

Like Father, Like Son? Definitely Not!

George Young, ace marathon swimmer of years ago, waited 12 years to get the $25,000 cash prize he earned by winning the 36-mile Catalina island swim in 1926. He was a lad of 17 at the time, and was given the money when he reached 30. George and his wife, residents of Canada, turn "thumbs down" on a swimming career for George Jr., who practices his strokes on the piano stool. The $25,000 is all he and his wife have left from swimming careers which won them $125,000.

Business as Usual for Warren Billings

Warren K. Billings, who served 23 years of a life sentence in Folsom prison in connection with the San Francisco Preparedness day bombing in 1916, is now running his own watch-repairing shop in San Francisco. Billings learned the profession in prison, where he says he worked on 10,000 watches owned by fellow prisoners and prison officials. Billings is pictured at his workbench, surrounded by tools presented him by friends, many of whom worked diligently to secure his release from Folsom. Tom McNeely, convicted with Billings, was released from San Quentin after serving 22 years.

Ratifying Berlin-Moscow Trade Pact

Ambassador Selkwarzew, left, seated, of Soviet Russia and Foreign Minister Joachim von Ribbentrop, right, belatedly affix their signatures to the trade pact agreed on last fall. Premier Molotov of Russia is reported planning a visit to Berlin to seek German military aid against Finland.

General Motors Builds 25-Millionth Unit

Brief ceremonies were held in the Chevrolet assembly plant at Flint, January 11, marking completion of this car, the 25-millionth unit built by General Motors. In behalf of the thousands of workers who had a hand in its manufacture, 75 members of the final assembly line crew handed M. E. Coyle, Chevrolet general manager, a commemorative scroll for presentation to W. S. Knudsen, president of General Motors. Veteran Chevrolet employees, and executives of the Buick and AC Spark Plug divisions, were present as special guests.

It may look the same
...BUT THERE'S A DIFFERENCE

• Outwardly, your telephone may seem much the same as it was last year—or the year before. But every year it brings better service into your home, your office or your shop—and offers you greater value for the small amount it costs.

The Illinois Bell Telephone Company never gives up its search for better and more efficient equipment and methods of operation. In this it is aided by the research work of the great Bell Telephone Laboratories. Connections are made more quickly. Your voice is carried more clearly. Service interruptions are rarer. And in spite of the higher costs the Company has had to meet, continuous improvement in equipment and methods has kept its price so low and its usefulness so great that telephone service is one of the best bargains in your budget. If you haven't a telephone, order one today.

"Pick Yourself a Hobby," Woman's Club Members Told

"Hobbies are good for a person," Mrs. Edith Stewart Van Buren of Chicago told the members of the Antioch Woman's club at a meeting Monday evening in the home of Mrs. B. R. Burke, Tiffany road.

Speaking on the subject, "Let Us Have Hobbies," Mrs. Van Buren said in part:

"If you want to try something in the way of hobbies, you owe it to yourself to have a fling at it—no matter how silly it may seem to your neighbor. Maybe you can't be an artist or a singer, but you can have a lot of fun out of taking a few painting lessons or a lesson or two in singing—and it will do you a world of good. Theodore Roosevelt couldn't carry a tune in a basket—but he sang along with the rest just the same.

"There are lots of women who are good home makers, but aren't interested in anything else. It would be good for them and good for their families if they had a little hobby of some sort—something to take their minds outside of the home once in a while.

"Hobbies are good for the business man, too. They can be an aid to health, as well as a means of recreation.

In illustration of her theory that hobbies may be aids to health, Mrs. Van Buren cited several cases, including that of two business men who found that too much golf in their spare time was turning into a chore rather than fun. One of them, she said, found color photography a finer medium than golf for enjoying the outdoors.

"Get yourself out of your daily routine once in a while," the speaker concluded. "It'll be good for you—and you'll like it!"

Refreshments were served by a hostess committee that included Mrs. Burke, Mrs. G. R. Dickel and Miss Dorothy Ferris. Miss Ferris took the place of her mother, Mrs. Paul Ferris, who is still in Ohio, where she was called by the death of her mother recently. The meeting was to have been held at the Ferris residence, but in Mrs. Ferris' absence Mrs. Burke graciously offered the facilities of her lovely home.

The next meeting of the club, on Feb. 5, will be at the home of Mrs. D. N. Deering. Hilda Butler Farr is to speak on "Dreams for Sale."

ANNOUNCE P. T. A. CARD PARTY JAN. 22

Bridge—both auction and contract—five hundred and pinocle will be played at a card party to be sponsored by the Antioch Parent Teacher association Monday evening, Jan. 22, in the grade school. An admission charge of 35 cents will be made, according to the committee, which consists of Mrs. Elmer Hunter, Mrs. Roy Kuttall, Mrs. Rutha Smith (teacher of the third grade and Miss Ayleen Wilson, teacher of the seventh grade. Refreshments will be served.

RECREATION ASSN. SETS DATE FOR PARTY

Saturday evening, March 30, is the date which has been decided upon by the Antioch Recreation association for its annual community party. Last year's party drew more than 600 persons to Antioch Township High school, where it was held, and this year's affair will, it is hoped, be equally successful.

Dancing is to be one of the main features of the evening, and cards will be another.

Entertainment of various other types is also being planned, so that there will be fun for all who attend.

EASTERN STAR PLANS PAST MATRONS' NIGHT

Mrs. Rose Anderson was recovered sufficiently from a recent illness, which kept her confined to her home in Highland Park, to preside as worthy matron at a meeting of the Antioch Eastern Star chapter Thursday evening in the Masonic temple.

After the business period, cards were enjoyed in the dining room, where tables of pinocle, five hundred and bridge were arranged.

"Past Matrons' Night" will be observed at the next meeting of the chapter, on Thursday evening, Jan. 25.

"WISDOM OF TESTS" IS BAHAI SUBJECT

"The Wisdom of Tests" will be the subject to be discussed at the regular Tuesday evening meeting of the Antioch-Bristol Bahai group. The meeting begins promptly at 8:30 and is held in the Mathison home, Haven Heights, on highway "Q" in Bristol township. A social hour follows the discussion.

CHANNEL LAKE CLUB PARTY PLANS CONTINUE

Dancing will be added to the entertainment of the evening for the basket social and card party being planned by the Channel Lake Community club for Tuesday, Jan. 23. Proceeds will go to the school's fund for hot lunches for the children.

Chruska; Grayslake, Mrs. John Trout, Mrs. Earl Barron; Gurnee, Mrs. John Blume, Mrs. Manley Whittier; Hickory, Mrs. Ellsworth Fox; Libertyville, Mrs. William Braum; Volo, Mrs. Ray Hafer; Wadsworth, Mrs. C. J. Bohn, Mrs. Louis Clerk.

Mrs. O. L. Raether, county president, Mrs. Walter Crook, county vice president, were county delegates to the Illinois Home Bureau Federation meeting Tuesday. Mrs. Raether also served on the Resolutions committee reporting at the federation meeting. Mrs. Lewis Mills attended a luncheon given for Home Bureau members who have kept home accounts for 10 years or more. She also attended the banquet on Wednesday evening honoring past county presidents.

Mrs. J. L. Magnuson, county recreation chairman, attended the recreation round table and chorus organization meetings.

Mrs. Helen Volk, county home adviser, has scheduled a number of conferences with specialists of the state staff for the purpose of formulating the 1940-41 program of work to be carried out in Lake county.

Miss Florence Kimmelschue, former Lake county home adviser, invited all Lake county delegates to a tea at her home on Tuesday afternoon. Mrs. Volk poured.

VISITORS FROM OREGON, TEXAS, CALL ON RADTKES

It was a pleasant surprise for the Herman A. Radtke Saturday when their son-in-law, H. P. Carey, who was in Chicago for the furniture market, paid a visit to them in Antioch. However, he was not the only visitor they had during the week-end, who hailed from a considerable distance, for Howard Sheehan, who was called to Lake Villa from Pendleton, Ore., by the death of his father, also visited them, on Friday.

Tuesday guests at the Radtke's home were their daughter, Mrs. Richard Cavanaugh, and four friends, all of Kenosha.

Awards for high score at a bridge party at which Mrs. Paul Vezens entertained the members of her club Thursday afternoon at her home on Lake street went to Mmes. George Bacon and George Kuhaupt.

"Guidance of Child's Reading" Is Subject of P. T. A. Speaker

No meeting will be held by the Antioch Grade School Parent Teacher association in February, in was announced at the January gathering held Monday evening in the school house.

Instead, the P. T. A. will co-operate in the safety meeting and demonstration to be held at Antioch Township High school Monday evening, Feb. 12, at 8 o'clock.

Kernit Dehl, English instructor at Libertyville High school, was the speaker Monday evening. Mr. Dehl, who has made a special study of remedial and developmental reading, spoke on "The Guidance of a Child's Reading."

Mrs. Marion Rigby, chairman of group study, reviewed an article on "Vocational Training" which appeared in a recent issue of the Parent Teacher magazine.

A cornet solo by Sammy Klass completed the program.

Refreshments were served afterward. Mrs. C. N. Lux and Miss Ayleen Wilson poured.

Mrs. Joseph Patrovsky, president, and Mrs. Irving Elms were announced as chairmen of a committee in charge of transportation for members who wished to attend a lecture on public health at the Abbott Laboratories on Wednesday evening of this week.

Royal Neighbors Will Hold Open Installation Next Tuesday Evening

The general public is being invited by the Antioch Royal Neighbor camp to attend an installation of officers Tuesday evening, Jan. 23, in the Odd Fellows hall on Ida street.

Mrs. Gladys Ames of Gurnee, a Royal Neighbor supervisor, is to be a guest of honor at the meeting. It is expected that a number of other visitors will be present from out-of-town.

Officers for 1940 who are to assume their stations at this time will include the following:

Mmes. Eleanor Edgar, orator; Betty Mortenson, past orator; Dorothy Wertz, vice-orator; Sine Laursen, chancellor; Effie Nelson, recorder (recorder by proxy, Eva Barnstable); Leota Teckert, receiver.

Mmes. Deborah Van Patten, musician; Alma Harden, Faith; Pearl Anderson, Courage; Helen Patrovsky, Modesty; Gertrude Mann, Unselfishness; Agnes Hills, Endurance; Myrtle Hanke, flag bearer; Freda Wertz, captain of the degree staff.

Dr. W. W. Warriner will act as physician.

On the installing staff are Mrs. Freda Wertz as installing officer; Mrs. Effie Nelson, ceremonial marshal; Mrs. Anna Kelly, installing chancellor; Mrs. Ada Herman, installing inner sentinel; Mmes. Lillian Gray, May Masck, Mabel Solomon and Helen Burnette, escorts.

The serving of refreshments, under the charge of a hostess committee, will follow the program.

BUSINESS WOMEN PREPARING FOR PANDA LECTURE

The lecture to be given by Ray Scott, of the panda-seeking expedition party, March 4 in Antioch Township High school is occupying the attention of the Business and Professional Women's club these days.

Plans for the talk, which is the annual public lecture sponsored by the club, were discussed at a special meeting in the home of Mrs. C. E. Hennings, president, on Monday evening. Twelve members were present at the gathering, at which arrangements were also discussed for the club's regular February meeting, to be held the evening of the 5th, in the Grade school. A musical program is to be a feature at that time.

ROYAL NEIGHBOR OFFICERS MEET

Six tables of five hundred were arranged at a card party held in connection with a meeting of the Royal Neighbors Officers' club of Antioch, Tuesday evening in the home of Mrs. Lester Heath.

High honors went to Mmes. George Kuhaupt, Lester Nelson, Katherine Dibble, Sine Laursen, Sophie Mastne and Vera Rentner.

Refreshments were served under the charge of Mrs. Heath and Mrs. Frank Harden.

"STAR" OFFICERS MAKE SPRING PLANS

Plans for the spring months were arranged by members of the Antioch Eastern Star Officers' club at a meeting held Tuesday evening in the home of Mrs. O. E. Hachmeister. Fifteen members were present for the business session, which was followed with the serving of refreshments.

Mrs. Irving Carey entertained the members of her club at her home on Thursday evening. Mrs. S. B. Nelson was holder of the high score for the card play.

PARTY CELEBRATES TWO ANNIVERSARIES

The birthday anniversaries of Mrs. Effie Nelson and her grandson, Jackie Nelson, occurring respectively on Jan. 18 and Jan. 19, were celebrated jointly at a noon dinner held in Mrs. Nelson's home Wednesday. Jackie, who is the son of Mr. and Mrs. Lester Nelson, will be four years old tomorrow.

Those present included Messrs. and Mmes. Lester Nelson and family, George Bacon and William Teichert; Mmes. Hugh Hufendick, Sine Laursen, Margaret Jensen, Walter Hills and Vera Rentner.

Mrs. Hufendick was also honored at a recent birthday celebration, a supper held at her home last Sunday, with the Lester Nelsons, the William Teicherts, Mrs. Rentner and Mrs. Effie Nelson present.

CEDAR LAKE P. T. A. TO HOLD LUNCHEON

A 1 o'clock luncheon, to be followed with card play, is being planned by the Cedar Lake Parent Teacher association for Thursday afternoon, Jan. 25. An admission charge of 25 cents is to be made for the affair, which will be held in the home of Mrs. William Hurley, at Loon Lake.

Mr. and Mrs. Irving Sieger, who have been living east of Antioch, have moved into the upper flat of a home on North Main street owned by Mrs. T. E. Hanson.

Mrs. W. C. Petty sustained a broken wrist in a fall on the ice near her home Tuesday morning.

Mr. and Mrs. S. Boyer Nelson and the A. P. Bratrudes left Sunday on a two weeks' vacation trip to Florida. They expect to visit numerous places of interest in the state, and will make a call on Dr. and Mrs. B. J. Corbin, who are spending the winter in Lake-land.

Mr. and Mrs. O. E. Hachmeister spent Wednesday in Union Grove, Wisconsin.

Nason Sibley was here for the week-end from Wright Field at Dayton, O. where he has been assisting in government aviation construction work.

The Rev. and Mrs. W. C. Henslee returned Friday from a fifteen days' motor trip to Florida.

Miss Deedie Tiffany has been ill at her home.

New Ideas Help Left-Over Meat Return to Table

"Hash is not the only solution to use up the left-over turkey, duck, chicken, roast beef or other meat remaining from hearty meals. Families weary of hash will welcome such meat dishes as stuffed peppers, chop suey, hot pork sandwiches with mustard sauce and shepherd's pie," says the well known foods instructor, Miss Ida Fisher, of the department of home economics, College of Agriculture, University of Illinois.

Bacon and chicken toasted sandwiches are one of her first suggestions. Lettuce and mayonnaise generously added give extra zest to the meat and bread combination. Keeping the sandwich piping hot makes it more of a success.

Chicken-a-la-king plus a-la-hot-waffles gives an old idea new appeal. For the sauce use 2 cups of diced cooked chicken, 3 tablespoons each of butter, chopped green pepper, pimento and flour, 1 medium can of cream of mushroom soup, 3/4 teaspoon salt, 1 tablespoon of India relish and 2 egg yolks. Melt the butter, add the green pepper and pimento and cook slowly until brown. Add the flour and blend well. Then add the soup and salt and stir until thick. Follow with the India relish and chicken. Heat thoroughly. Add the beaten egg yolks and serve in patty shells, on buttered toast or on waffles.

Left-over chicken becomes a party or luncheon dish when turned into molded salad. The directions are: Soak 2 teaspoons of gelatin in 1/2 cup of cold water for 5 minutes and dissolve over boiling water. Add to this 2 cups of cold diced chicken, 1/2 cup of diced celery, 1/4 cup of chopped green pepper and 1/2 teaspoon of salt. Mix well and turn into a ring mold or individual molds. Chill thoroughly and turn out on a bed of crisp lettuce. Top with mayonnaise and decorate with sliced olives.

Shepherd's pie answers the problem of a hot dish for a cold day and takes care of left-over beef, veal or pork. To 1 1/2 cups of hot water and 1 cup of hot gravy or meat stock add 4 tablespoons of minute tapioca, 1 teaspoon of salt, 3/4 teaspoon each of paprika and pepper. Cook the mixture in a double boiler for 15 minutes or until the tapioca is clear, stirring frequently. Add 1 finely chopped parsley, 2 teaspoons Worcestershire sauce or 1 tablespoon of ketchup and 2 cups of diced cooked meat. Mix well and pour into a greased baking dish. Spread two cups of seasoned mashed potatoes over the top and bake in a moderate oven (350° F.) for 20 minutes or until the potatoes are brown. This quantity serves six.

Hot mustard sauce gives a fresh flavor to cold sliced pork. Melt 2 tablespoons of butter in a skillet, add two tablespoons of flour and brown slightly. Add 1 cup of milk, stir until the sauce thickens and season with 1/2 teaspoon of salt and 2 teaspoons of prepared mustard. Place 8 to 10 slices of meat in the sauce and allow them to remain until they are heated through. Serve them on slices of bread, toasted and buttered on both sides.

A good way to finish up a roast of veal is to cut slices of the cold roast about 1/4 inch thick. Dip each slice into ketchup, then into bread crumbs, coating completely. Fry in hot fat to a golden brown. Salt and pepper to taste.

The Lake County Farmers' Institute will be held at Antioch Feb. 9 and 10. On the committees are H. B. Pierce, C. C. Carpenter, I. R. Webb, George Webb, D. A. Williams, Ellis Sabin, L. B. Grice, H. D. Hughes, J. J. Burke, J. Thain, J. E. Holcomb, W. L. Doolittle, S. M. Spafford, Flora Harden, Lellie Williams and Mrs. C. P. Hook.

Corp. Ernest C. Trieger of Co. G, 14th Infantry, writes from Imus, near Manila, P. I. (letter dated Nov. 30): "Aguineldo's army is pretty well licked. . . . Our Thanksgiving dinner was a pleasant one. In the evening an Edison phonograph company of Chicago treated us to a fine entertainment of the latest songs and recitations. . . . Manila is getting more Americanized day by day."

J. J. Burke went to another court of honor installation, this time at Antioch. He records "About 200 partook of an elaborate spread, which was without doubt one of the best suppers ever served in this place on any public occasion, and this is saying considerable, as Antioch is noted for the ability and willingness of its ladies to furnish a feast fit for a king. After all had partaken there was still enough left to feed another crowd, including five gallons of oysters untouched and a half dozen or more of cakes, etc., uncut, with fruit enough to stock a fair sized fruit store. After supper had been disposed of, in fact while part of the company were at supper, the remainder were on the floor dancing. Mr. and Mrs. R. M. Haynes, Messrs. Will Schert, W. B. Williams and C. M. Confer forming the orchestra. None of the new-fangled quadrilles were attempted, but nearly all of the good old-fashioned dances of twenty years ago were called off. About 3:00 a. m. the party dispersed voting the meeting a complete success."

Dr. Mary F. Harry, who was born at Millburn, is now a member of the Colorado legislature from Pueblo.

Corn Growers to be Honored January 29

Owners and men in charge of the Frank Farm of Antioch and Chesney Farms of Lake Villa will be honored at a meeting at the Faust hotel in Rockford Monday, January 29 when they will be presented with the award for their wining in the National corn growing contest sponsored by the DeKalb Agricultural Association, Inc.

The presentation of the prizes will be made from 1:00 to 1:15 and will be broadcast over radio station WROK at Rockford. Awards will be made to farmers from Jo Davies, Stephenson, Winnebago, Carroll, Boone, McHenry, Lake and Ogle counties in Illinois and also Rock and Walworth counties in Wisconsin.

These men are to be congratulated on their accomplishments in corn growing since there were 8000 entries in this contest from the principal corn growing counties in the United States.

The national winner was Roland Resler of Champaign county, Illinois, who secured a record yield of 171 bushels per acre.

Word of Mrs. Tukey's Death Comes from Calif.

Word has been received by relatives, telling of the death of Mrs. W. D. Tukey, at her home near Pasadena, Calif., on Sunday, January 14th.

Mrs. Tukey was Susie Taylor, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Henry Taylor, and lived at Millburn, Ill., until her marriage to W. D. Tukey, when they went to Denver, Colo., to live and later moved to California.

Shipwrecks Missing

New Zealand has a shipwrecks society and no shipwrecks. It was disclosed by the Shipwrecks Relief society that money is accumulating in the bank for want of disaster.

The society obtains its finances from the shipping companies and the harbor boards of this country, all of which make an annual contribution. Year by year the funds grow larger. Now they stand at $80,000 and are safely invested. This has resulted in the society now receiving more than it spends. The position is regarded with satisfaction by local governments, it seems. Mayor Arthur H. Allen of Dunedin has said: "It is gratifying to know this money has been invested in gilt edged securities."

Crown Nation's Finest Girl Cooks

The nation's four best girl cooks were honored for their culinary skill recently at the International Live Stock show in Chicago. Winners of the countrywide Four-H club food preparation contest, left to right: Maxine Koons, 18, Fairmont, Minn.; Orr-Lyda J. Brown, 18, Eugene, Ore.; Catherine Barnes, 17, Moultrie, Fla., and Betty Freeman, 16, Pikeville, Tenn.

Washington Welcomes New Representative

A new arrival to the nation's capital is welcomed by Speaker of the House William B. Bankhead. The Washington newcomer is Rep. Edwin A. Hall Jr., right, of the thirty-fourth district, New York state. He was elected recently to succeed the late Rep. Bert Lord.

TWO PAIRS OF SOCKS	ONE SHIRT	TWO HANDKERCHIEFS	TWO COLLARS	ONE MUFFLER	ONE PAIR GLOVES	ONE SUIT OF UNDERWEAR

Diagram demonstrates how the new Nazi clothes ration plan will work from December 1, 1939, to September 1, 1940. Ration cards permit of 100 units of clothing purchase during that period. Thus, between December 1 and April 1, a man can purchase two pairs of socks, two handkerchiefs, a muffler and one pair of gloves. Between April 1 and September 1 he can purchase one shirt, two collars and a suit of underwear. Purchase of a suit would cost 60 units.

The Observer

We are inclined to believe that "Doc" D. N. Deering must have been a shark at biology laboratory work way back in his "pre-med" student days. . . . the "Spotty" frog and "Softy" crab fishing lures he designs for a hobby are that scientific. A good biologist was probably lost when he turned his mind to being an M. D.

The kind of weather we've been having this week sort of makes us believe some of those stories about the cold winters back in Grandpa's time.

Sometimes we can't help but feel a little sad because we can't be quite so up-to-date on our news as, say, the Chicago dailies. And then, again, when we notice some of our daily contemporaries slipping up a bit and getting their Saturday news in by Wednesday, we figure maybe we aren't so far behind, either. And, of course, we always have the consolation that while a daily paper is old the next day, the Antioch News isn't going to be old till next Thursday—and if you think this paper doesn't get read thoroughly, just try and make a mistake in it! We have readers bringing in their copies for the next three weeks, telling us about it. It makes a person feel pretty serious sometimes about writing for them. Makes you figure whatever there is in the paper, even if it isn't much, has GOT to be good. And it's nice to know folks DO read things pretty thoroughly, too. Gives you sort of a nice, warm, friendly feeling.

We wondered if it looked as funny to the orchestra as it did to us the other evening—a bunch of jitter-bugs hippety-hopping through a waltz as they tried to restrain themselves when the musicians slid into the soulful gliding melody of "Down Mexico Way." . . . But it wasn't any funnier than the sweet young thing in the long, stately, billowy dance frock kicking her ruffles around a la Mae West as she and her escort jittered blithely through a fast number.

There was a small discussion going on in our office the other a. m. when we came in late, with the boss and Mr. Nelson and Mr. Goodell reaching conclusions on the Russian-Finnish matter. Said Goodell in a thoughtful wind-up, "I guess Stalin killed off so many of his best generals that he hasn't anybody left to handle the fighting." — Foreign papers, please copy.

Quite a lot of people we know are going out and getting some ski practice, with the nice new snow so convenient and all. We tried to do a little ski practicing ourselves once, up in Ashland, Wis. But we never seemed to be able to get down to the bottom of the hill as fast as our skis did, so we got mad and quit.

The old fashioned saying about "root hog or die" has now been changed to "root hog or go on relief."

The Youth in Business

By C. E. Johnston

Dean, Schools of Business
International Correspondence Schools

PROSPECTS for American youth in 1940 are much brighter than for many years. Studies and surveys conducted by private businesses and governmental agencies indicate that employment will be at a high level in coming months. Hundreds of thousands of new jobs must be filled and employment will be relatively permanent.

There will be many positions at the bottom, jobs that require little experience and training. There will also be a great demand for trained men and women. One survey recently completed finds that "there is a pressing need for skilled mechanics." Another study indicates that "competent stenographers are very difficult to find." Still another investigation concludes that "there is a grave shortage of junior executive material."

Competition for these new jobs will be keen. Standards for selecting new employees may well be high and the person seeking the position may have to do a better job of selling himself than in the past. The young man who looks for employment in 1940 should expect that employment managers and other executives will be exacting in their requirements and he should seek to learn the qualifications of different positions and to fit himself for those that are of special interest to him.

No doubt about it... your home has a chronic case of

INADEQUATE WIRING
AND OUTLET STARVATION!

Better take advantage of today's low prices and terms on wiring and outlets

HERE ARE THE SYMPTOMS:

DIM LIGHTS—If your lights fade when you attach an iron or some other electric aid, or if the iron takes too long to heat—that's a sure sign that your present wiring is inadequate.

BLACKOUTS—In many cases such overloading of the circuit results in a complete blackout of all lights and appliances. Then a new fuse must be installed, but the same thing may happen again.

CORD NESTS—A sure symptom of insufficient outlets. Caused by trying to plug in lamps, radio, iron and electric train all on one outlet. Very inconvenient—and unnecessary.

... AND HERE IS THE CURE!

See your wiring contractor or Public Service Company representative—ask about the special low prices and terms that make it easy to have modern, adequate wiring and additional electric outlets in your home.

WHY gamble! Why try to get along on wiring that's out of date and fails to deliver enough electricity for your needs? It's not only inconvenient, but costly, too. For when you draw too much current from one circuit at one time, you lose power along the wire—and fail to get all the electricity you pay for... Your friendly electrical contractor has an easy remedy for just such a condition. See him—ask about installing one or two appliance circuits to an adequate number of electric wall outlets. It's not an elaborate task—and the cost is now amazingly low!

... AND ELECTRICITY IS CHEAP!

WEEKLY NEWS ANALYSIS BY JOSEPH W. LaBINE

Congress May Out-Spree FDR In Boosting Defense Budget, Despite Election-Year Fears

(EDITOR'S NOTE—When opinions are expressed in these columns, they are those of the news analyst and not necessarily of this newspaper.)
Reprinted by Western Newspaper Union.

CONGRESS: On Guard (?)

Biggest item on the congressional agenda was Franklin Roosevelt's $8,242,000,000 budget, which the senate voted to investigate via a joint super-committee. But there was more talk than action. While congressmen fumed to bury their teeth in the $1,800,000,000 defense program, major budget item, they also hesitated, watching developments abroad. In an election year there must be economy talk, but 1940's congress may end up by spending more on defense than even the President asked.

There were probes aplenty. Even though the house might kill that unprecedented super-committee, four more groups were hard at it. The house naval affairs committee began by slapping newly appointed Navy Secretary Charles Edison. The slap: Pigeon-holing a proposal that the President be given peacetime power to commandeer factories, materials and ships. Next came Admiral Harold Stark, chief of naval operations, who opined (1) that the U. S. now has no two-ocean

The committee was jealous.

navy, and (2) that 52,000-ton battleships wouldn't be a bad idea. (Now building are two 45,000-tonners, with two more provided in the current bill.)

Chairman Carl Vinson stepped in at this point with the week's No. 1 surprise, a proposal to boost naval strength 25 per cent the next three years through a $1,300,000,000 added appropriation. With this suggestion Admiral Stark agreed in toto.

Another house committee, appropriations, showed neither spendthriftiness nor laziness in okaying $267,197,000 for immediate emergency defense (army, navy, coast guard and FBI). The committee simply knew not where to turn. But if the senate approved this fund the current year's defense bill will be higher than next year's. Next day, when Carl Vinson learned the appropriation committee might okay another $4,000,000 to fortify Guam, he bolted over. That question, he insisted, should first come to his attention. Said he: "This committee (naval affairs) is jealous of its prerogatives."

Two senate committees meanwhile got up steam. Foreign affairs looked suspiciously at Guam, wondering how Japan would swallow the fortification plan. (See ASIA.) Appropriations, under Colorado's Alva Adams, wanted to junk the emergency defense fund and probably would.

What would eventually happen, most observers were willing to guess. Investigations will probably string along several months until Europe's war gathers steam. Then, overnight, congress will shoot the works and forget that it's an election year.

Also in congress:

1. The house passed Rep. Joseph Gavan's (D., N. Y.) perennial anti-lynching bill imposing fines on county or state officials who fail, by negligence, to prevent mob killings. The bill went to the senate, which customarily defeats it, two years ago by a South-sponsored filibuster. 2. The house ways and means committee heard Secretary of State Cordell Hull defend his reciprocal trade act, which expires June 12 unless renewed. Score: Ten Republicans against it, most of 15 Democrats in favor. But on the floor it will face greater opposition, probably being renewed only on the condition that the senate shall ratify all pacts. Meanwhile doughty Sen. Bill Borah of Idaho inferred that the breakdown of trade talks with Argentina and Uruguay was a plot to win continuation of the act.

3. Adolph Sabath of Illinois, chairman of the house rules committee, said he opposed any more money for Martin Dies' un-Americanism committee. Reason: "After all, Mr. Dies has had enough publicity for any and all purposes and perhaps he will be still in demand for public speeches and writing magazine articles."

ASIA: Naughty U. S.

By mid-January the U. S. was giving Japan so much trouble that the cabinet of Gen. Nobuyuki Abe was ready to fall. It was not enough that Tokyo's emissaries had been unable to win a new trade treaty replacing the pact being abrogated this month by Washington. Japanese also learned:

(1) That the senate foreign affairs committee was talking again of imposing an embargo on war material shipments to Japan. Leader of the move is Nevada's Sen. Key Pittman, committee chairman. Such a step would sound the death knell of Japan's war in China.

WANG'S EMPIRE (IN BLACK)
What would an embargo do?

(2) That Washington was again talking about a big navy (See CONGRESS). The Guam fortification plan, pigeon-holed last year, when Japan objected, was making news again. Tokyo papers were warning that the U. S. would soon be No. 1 offensive-defensive power in the Pacific. But the public, suffering from an internal stomach ache, was unexcited.

It seemed likely, meanwhile, that the Abe cabinet's sole accomplishment and last act would be to launch the puppet government of Wang Ching-wei over Japanese-dominated sections of China (see map). But if the U. S. embargo falls, lack of military supplies will make it hard to preserve what Japan has already won.

PEOPLE: Outstanding Stassen

At Chicago, the U. S. Junior Chamber of Commerce chose Minnesota's G. O. P. Gov. Harold Stassen as 1939's most outstanding young man.

Off to Australia from Shanghai went Clarence E. Gauss, U. S. consul general, just named the first American minister to Canberra.

At Washington, chief G-Man, J. Edgar Hoover, told a house committee why he needed a special $1,475,000 fund to fight saboteurs and spies. Revelation: Plans for an army bomber were stolen from an aircraft plant, but recovered by FBI.

At Baltimore, dethroned gangster Al Capone left the hospital where he has been treated for a brain ailment, taking up residence in a quiet, fashionable section of that city.

Introduced by Tennessee's Democratic Rep. Kenneth McKellar was a measure to cancel the rest (about $9,000,000) of Finland's war debt.

NEWS QUIZ

Test your nose for news. Answer all these questions and your score is 100. Deduct 20 points for each question you miss. If you miss more than three, better not tell anybody!

1. Bartley, W. Va., is a coal-mining community. Why was it in the news?

2. The man at the right, now British lord of the admiralty, may become supreme defense chief. What's his name?

3. According to the treasury, the average American had how much money in his pocket on January 1: (a) $37.71; (b) $10.13; (c) $126.54; (d) $1.401.

4. True or false: Thousands of workers at the Binghamton, N. Y., plant of the Endicott-Johnson Shoe company made news by voting for affiliation with the C. I. O.

5. Both Republican and Democratic national committees will meet in February to pick their 1940 convention date. Which committee will meet first?

News Quiz Answers

1. Ninety miners were trapped two miles underground.
2. Winston Churchill.
3. (A) is correct. This is the highest per capita circulation since March, 1933.
4. False. They made news by thumbing down both C. I. O. and A. F. of L.
5. Democrats on February 5; Republicans, February 12. This is important because the Republicans can now delay planning their candidate and platform until the opposition has committed itself.

THE WARS:

In the West

Germany and the allies seemed to be fighting everything else but each other as mid-winter arrived. There was sporadic sea warfare, a "great battle" over Sylt, German air base, and a Nazi raid over 500 miles of English coast. But despite those threats of heightened conflict, public attention was focused elsewhere.

Germany. Nazi soldiers were reported massed along the Baltic shores as the Reich eyed Scandinavia's neutrality, taking a more positive pro-Russian stand in the Soviet-Finnish war and threatening to invade Sweden and Denmark. But Germans were more worried about internal developments. Supplies from Russia and Rumania were held up by disputes, poor rail facilities and frozen river routes. The greatest cold wave in 11 years struck hard in Berlin, where there were shortages of both coal and food. At this unstrategic time, it was rumored workers would soon be paid IOU's instead of cash.

Allies. France was rumored about to shake up her cabinet, something Britain had already done. While the London press still railed at Prime Minister Neville Chamberlain for dismissing War Minister Leslie Hore-Bellisha, Chamberlain turned about and rallied the empire to "more vigorous prosecution of the war." Both Hore-Bellisha and Chamberlain were soon scheduled to unburden themselves in a secret session of commons. By general consensus, Chamberlain's position was none too secure.

In the North

Catching their breath during a temporary lull in fighting, the Finns estimated they had destroyed three, and possibly four Russian divisions in one month. Still undetermined was a battle raging on the Salla front, where correspondents heard that Soviet relief troops were being encircled. Counting $10,000,000 worth of booty seized when the forty-fourth Russian division was annihilated, the Finns forecast a several weeks' lull.

THE BALKANS: Carol's Choice

Back to Budapest from Venice went Hungary's Foreign Minister Stefan Csaky. In his pocket was a plan: Italy would safeguard the Balkans from either Russian or German aggression provided that stubborn Rumanian, King Carol, could be whipped into line. All Rumania must do is guarantee territorial revision with Hungary and Bulgaria, in which case Italy and her neighbors will help Rumania if Russia tries to recapture Bessarabia. But should Rumania refuse, her neighbors will not only let Russia come in, but will invade King Carol's precinct themselves.

Actually this Italo-Hungarian agreement constituted an important step in breaking Italy away from Germany. Details of the pact were not published, for fear of "giving offense" to the Reich and Russia.

RUMANIA'S WOES

WILMOT

The Ladies' Aid society of the Methodist church will give a turkey dinner, Thursday, January 18, at the church parlors.

Miss Irene White of Kenosha spent Sunday at her home.

Mrs. Paul Voss, Virgene, Avis, and Lloyd were Kenosha visitors Saturday.

Mr. and Mrs. Clem Tilton and son of Maple Park, Ill., were entertained by Mrs. Lynne Sherman and Mr. and Mrs. Wayne Tilton on Sunday.

Mrs. Jerry Lavendoski and daughter, Audrey, spent the week-end at the Ferdinand Beck home. Audrey celebrated her sixth birthday anniversary at this time with her cousin, Shirley Meyers of Waukegan.

Mrs. Herbert Sarbacher attended the Past Matrons club Tuesday afternoon at the home of Mrs. Roy Buf-ton, Silver Lake.

The Young People's society of the Lutheran church of Elkhorn will entertain the Wilmot Young People's society at a roller skating party at Elkhorn on Thursday evening.

Mr. and Mrs. Joseph Nolan, Oak Park, Ill., and Mrs. Wallace Dobyns and son, Gene, were Saturday callers on the Misses Grace and Erminie Carey.

Mr. and Mrs. George Higgins called on Mrs. Alvin Moran at the Kenosha hospital Saturday. Mrs. Moran is somewhat improved.

Mr. and Mrs. Alfred Oetting, Richmond, were Sunday morning visitors of Mr. and Mrs. Herman Frank.

Mr. and Mrs. Roy Swartz entertained Mr. and Mrs. Norbert Lichter, Mr. and Mrs. Glenn Swartz, Mr. and Mrs. Robert Thomas, Mr. and Mrs. Milton Smith, all of Somers, and Mr. and Mrs. Burton Thomas of Racine at a party Saturday evening.

Russell Elwood, Lyle McDougall and Miss Ruth Shottliffe visited Mrs. Russell Elwood at the Burlington hospital Sunday.

Miss Gertrude Nett, Elgin, spent the week-end with her parents, Mr. and Mrs. Ben Nett.

Sunday afternoon, January 21, at 2:00 p. m., the high school band will present a concert in the gymnasium. Everyone is cordially invited to attend. Tickets are for sale now.

Last Friday night Wilmot played Waterford in a tough game of basketball. Wilmot defeated Waterford with a score of 15 to 9.

Friday night, January 19th, Wilmot will play East Troy at Wilmot. A dance will follow the game.

Part time schools in home economics and agriculture are being established in various parts of the county. Anyone interested in these subjects is invited to attend the meetings. More information in regard to this will be given at a later date.

William Fox, Salem, is the general chairman for the card party which

How the wind is blowing...

BANKING—At San Francisco L. M. Giannini threatened to withdraw his Bank of America from the federal banking system unless Secretary of the Treasury Morgenthau halts "persecution" of its officers through the Securities Exchange Commission, which has been examining records of Transamerica corporation, owner of 40 per cent of the bank's stock. Next day Henry Morgenthau struck back.

POLITICS—At Washington it was indicated that Chicago can have both Republican and Democratic national conventions for the asking providing the city posts a $150,000 financial guarantee for each.

AGRICULTURE—Although 1940 cotton marketing quotas were approved by 91 per cent of the farmers voting (962,273), it was estimated by the department of agriculture that the election had been staged by only 38 per cent of all cotton growers (2,300,000).

AVIATION—Within the next year, every major airline in the U. S. will be flying four-engined, 40-passenger aircraft in subsonic speeds at levels at speeds more than 50 miles per hour faster than at present. The ships: Douglas DC-4s and Boeing 307s.

Urge X-Ray Pictures for T. B. Prevention

The following suggestion for the New Year comes to the Lake County Tuberculosis association from Dr. O. N. Lindberg, President, Illinois Tuberculosis association: "Why not think of getting yourself an X-ray picture for the New Year?"

"Tuberculosis is a disease which cannot be detected in its early stages by symptoms or by an ordinary physical examination," says Miss Orpha L. White, secretary of the Lake County association. "Beginning tuberculosis must be seen because it cannot be heard with a stethoscope. The X-ray picture will discover the earliest shadows of this disease two or three years before any symptoms develop; at a time when cure is certain, and the necessary period of time to be spent in the cure is relatively short."

"The reason so many people spend two and three more years flat on their backs in bed trying to cure tuberculosis is, in the majority of cases, due to the fact that the disease was discovered after symptoms developed, and the disease has reached a moderately or far advanced stage."

"Dr. Lindberg says you may not have tuberculosis, and the X-ray film will show you that you do not have it. On the other hand, if you do discover the disease in its early stages, you will have cause to be thankful that you have started the New Year right with an X-ray picture. Especially is it true that school teachers, young parents, food handlers and others who come in close contact with many people should, for their own protection as well as for the protection of those with whom they associate have an X-ray picture each year. What better time can you select than the beginning of the New Year?"

"The clerical force of the Lake County Tuberculosis association, assisted by help from the NYA office, is busy preparing over 8,000 reminders to be mailed to those who have forgotten or mislaid their Christmas Seals during the rush of the Christmas season. Several patrons of the association have inquired if they might contribute in January. Most of us find the pocketbook thin after the demands of Christmas and the association is always grateful for the contributor's gift in the month he can afford it best."

"The regular clinics of the Lake County Tuberculosis association are held on Wednesday and Friday mornings at the Tuberculosis Sanatorium with Dr. Pettier as examining physician. Appointments may be made through the office of the association, telephone Majestic 1895."

Announces Candidacy

Of interest to his Lake county friends is word received from Morris, Ill., that William G. Stratton, son of the late William J. Stratton, former Illinois secretary of state, is to be a candidate for congressman-at-large in the primary of April 9. Stratton, a Young Republican leader, received his elementary education in Lake county. He is a graduate of the University of Arizona, a member of the Lions club, the Eagles and Delta Chi fraternity. He is married and has two children.

Antioch "Birthday Ball" Contribution to Be Direct, Sans Expense

Feeling that the expenses of staging a "President's Birthday Ball" would eat up too large a share of the sum that would be raised for work for the crippled children, the Antioch chairman, James F. Horan, has announced that instead, Antioch contributions will be direct ones.

"March of Dimes" cards will be sent out, and coin banks for voluntary contributions from the public will be placed in local business establishments, Horan announces.

"We believe that in this way, the total sum raised here will be larger, since there will be no deductions for expenses of any kind," Horan states. "Half of the sum raised will remain in Lake county for the care of crippled children within its own borders," he points out.

"Birthday Ball" chairmen in nearby communities include Joseph Hucker, Lake Villa; Hilmer Carlson, Fox Lake; Joseph Molitor, Round Lake; Fanny Brandstetter, Grayslake; Raymond Kennedy, Libertyville; David Van Patten, Wadsworth; Gar Kelly, Russell.

Plan Homecoming Basketball Jan. 26

Designated as "Homecoming" basketball night, the first to be held at Antioch Township High school, is Friday evening, Jan. 26. Grant High will be the opponent on that occasion.

Antioch players marked up a double set of victories in games held here during the past week.

Tuesday evening they scored 29-24 against the Zion-Benton quintet. Lightweights for the two schools played in the preliminary, with Antioch scoring 23 and Zion 19.

Friday evening, the local team had a 33-26 win over Bensenville, with a 20-10 win for the Bensenville lights over the Antioch lightweights.

Miss Clara Haling, Correspondent

AHLANDERS CELEBRATE 48th ANNIVERSARY

Congratulations to Mr. and Mrs. E. H. Ahlander, who celebrated their forty-eighth wedding anniversary on the 11 of January, and as Mrs. Ahlander says, "That's a LONG time with one man, especially in these days!"

SON IS BORN TO JAMES CRAIGS

Mr. and Mrs. James Craig became the proud parents of a son on Jan. 15. The newest member of the Craig family arrived at Victory Memorial hospital in Waukegan, and weighed eight and one-half pounds.

MRS. JOHN YOPP ENTERTAINS FRIENDS

Mrs. John Yopp was hostess to several of her friends Tuesday afternoon. Those present were Mrs. Paul Portwich, Doris and Paul Portwich, Mrs. L. P. Yopp, Trudy Yopp and Clara Haling. It was also the birthday of little Ralph Yopp who became six years old on this day.

AIRPLANE LANDS ON GRASS LAKE

Along with the thrill of their first airplane ride, Charley Haling and your correspondent enjoyed the sensation of flying over familiar territory and seeing their home from the air. The plane was owned by Joe LeClaire of Chicago and the pilot who took us up was Mr. Snyder of the Aeroflex Corp. The plane was a scarlet Aeroflex and capable of a speed of 240 miles per hour. However, 145 miles per proved plenty fast for us!

BIRTHDAY PARTY IS POSTPONED

Gertrude Yopp, affectionately known as "Truchan," had a birthday Sunday, Jan. 14, and the occasion was to have been observed with an outdoor skating and tobogganing party, but Truchan evidently forgot to invite the weather-man and he took his revenge by sending us the snowstorm which raged all that day, and made it necessary to call off the party. However, plans are being made to hold the party this week and a special invitation has been sent to Mr. Weather-man to give us a pleasant week-end. By-the-way, one of her birthday gifts was a candid camera and now between Clara's movie camera and Truchan's candid camera, the folks on Grass Lake will know no rest when these two gals are around. They'll get you if you don't watch out!

TOBOGGAN SLIDE PROVES POPULAR

The toboggan slide at Johnny Steitz' place on Bluff Lake, is giving a lot of folks both thrills and spills these days and everybody is having fun. Tuesday night a group of Antioch folks enjoyed themselves there regardless of the fact that the temperature hovered around zero. The slide is plenty fast now and besides the thrill of going downhill at top speed, is also the thrill of sliding half-way across the lake. But take the advice of Frieda Yopp, who says, "Don't try it standing up!" You see, she did—but—lucky her!—she landed on her head and was only slightly hurt! Russell (Buster) Roepenack is visiting Mr. and Mrs. Peter Waldweiler in Waukegan this week.

Mrs. Roger Flint spent last week-end in Chicago, visiting Mrs. W. F. Doemland.

John Waldweiler and Charles Haling attended the G. L. C. C. meeting in Chicago last week.

"Chick" Rothers, who has been on the sick list, is reported much better. Mrs. L. P. Yopp and this correspondent were luncheon guests of Mr. and Mrs. Roger Flint on Wednesday and we are still marvelling at the manner in which Aunt Lydia and Uncle Roger, as they are familiarly known to all, have been able to convert two rooms of the old Wedeen hotel into such homelike and comfortable quarters. They have proved the old adage of "home is what you make it" and they have what it takes. Their courage and cheerfulness when everything looked mighty black have earned the admiration of the comfortably situated.

Mrs. Lawrence Yopp is entertaining the HiHo club this week at her home.

Mr. and Mrs. Jim Culbertson attended the Coin-Operators' show at the Sherman hotel in Chicago, all day Wednesday.

State Legion Urges Hospital at Marion

Representatives of the American Legion Department of Illinois will attend the national meeting of the Legion Rehabilitation Committee, in Washington, on Feb. 2, 3, and 4, when they will press the United States government on the early completion of a new hospital for veterans of Illinois, in Marion, Ill., and for favorable consideration of a bill providing for pensions of widows and orphans of veterans, according to information received today by Clarence J. White, Commander of the Antioch post of the American Legion.

The Illinois delegation will include L. N. Bittlinger, Commander, of Onarga, William C. Mundt, Dept. Adjutant, William R. McCauley, chairman, State Rehab. commission, of Olney, L. M. Stacy, National Rehab. commission, of Peoria and L. R. Benston, Chicago, Dept. service officer.

The local Post maintains a service officer, and ex-service men of this community who are in need of hospitalization can secure information from local Legion officers.

Older Young People's Society to Take Tour

The members of the Older Young People's society of Lake county will attend a WLS barn dance at the Eighth Street Theatre in Chicago, on Saturday, January 20. Those whose reservations have been made will leave the Libertyville M. E. church at 7:30 P. M. on a chartered bus.

At the last meeting, held in North Prairie, the resignation of Walter Heiber of Antioch-Evanston as tour chairman, was accepted, and Miss Melva Hubbard of Libertyville was elected to take his place.

The organization was also given the name of "Federated Christian Youth." Hereafter all notices of the club will appear under this title.

"The Old Soak" Is on Rotmour Bill Tonight

That beloved character of play and screen, "The Old Soak," will be brought to the boards of the Crystal theater this evening by J. B. Rotmour and his players.

On the coming calendar of the troupe's Thursday evening stage play presentations here are one of the newest comedy dramas, and a new mystery play, "J. B." announces.

Free merchant tickets may be obtained from firms listed in an advertisement in this issue of the Antioch News.

Perpetual Novena Is Continued at St. Peter's

St. Peter's church of Antioch is among the 572 Catholic churches in the United States in which the Perpetual Novena in Honor of Our Sorrows Mother has started its third year. Attended in the summer by large numbers of vacationists in the lakes region, it also draws many from considerable distances in the winter months, according to the Rev. F. M. Flaherty, pastor of St. Peter's. People from as far as Delavan on the northwest and Chicago on the southeast have come here for the novena held each Friday evening at 8:00 o'clock.

Stolen Cars Recovered

If your car is stolen, it's four to one the authorities will get it back for you, Chief Walter Williams of the Illinois State Highway police declares.

"A summary of state-wide police activity shows that 307 cars valued at $130,000 were recovered in November," he said. "This brings the total recoveries for the year to 3,641 which represents 83.3 per cent of all cars reported stolen."

The unusually high auto recovery rate in Illinois the Chief attributes to 24-hour radio broadcasts giving license numbers and descriptions of all stolen vehicles.
